ORDER DISMISSING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On October 30, 2007, the Court issued an order for Plaintiffs to show cause why the case should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction for incomplete diversity under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 or for lack of venue under 28 U.S.C. § 1391. On November 13, 2007, Plaintiffs filed a response, which identified the citizenship of the members of the three limited liability companies that are Plaintiffs AA-J Breeding, L.L.C.; Su-Sim, L.L.C.; and Derby Stakes, L.L.C. They represent that their members are citizens of California, Utah, or Nevada and that Defendants are corporation with states of incorporation of either Delaware or Michigan, with principal places of business in Michigan. Given their previous assertion that the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, their pleadings suffice to establish complete diversity. Also, as a consequence of the residence of Defendants in Michigan, Plaintiffs have established venue.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the order to show cause why the case should not be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction or venue is DISMISSED.
